Page 3, Q9. How would you compare the academic demands of a college course taken online versus face-to-face (on campus)?

1	there is more participation required, so as to show that you are actually reading and doing the assignments. They require discussion groups and other ways of letting them know you are "there"	Dec 9, 2012 1:13 PM
2	I like face to face classes better though.	Dec 6, 2012 8:59 PM
3	It is more convenient for me to take online classes because of my job.	Dec 6, 2012 8:35 PM
4	I have never taken a community college course before, this is certainly easier than the UC classes I have taken in person.	Dec 6, 2012 3:13 PM
5	If i had questions, it would take weeks for a reply IF the instructor did reply.	Dec 6, 2012 11:08 AM

Page 3, Q10. Which format allows you to learn more effectively?

1	They are effective with different types of classes. Seminar type classes work best in the online format. Certain concepts are difficult to teach when not in-person.	Dec 6, 2012 3:13 PM
---	--	---------------------

Page 3, Q11. Which learning format do you prefer?

1	It comes down to the subject matter. I feel non-seminar courses require much more interaction between students and faculty, but this format works really well for writing courses and seminars.	Dec 6, 2012 3:13 PM
